9 Sec. 66-176. - Temporary permits.

- 10 (a) The director may grant a temporary permit which allows noncompliance with the 11 limitations prescribed in this article for the purpose of sound activities of short duration.
- 12 (b) Permits shall be granted upon application, at a cost of $20.00, provided an investigation 13 assures that the permit will not result in a condition injurious to health or safety.
- 14 (c) The following factors shall be considered, in the initial investigation, in order to determine 15 whether granting the permit will result in a condition injurious to health or safety:
- 16 (1) Distance of proposed activities from a residential zone.
- 17 (2) Number of amplification devices, if any, to be used in the proposed activities.
- 18 (3) Sound level of amplification devices.
- 19 (4) Anticipated direction of amplification devices.

- 20 (5) Anticipated duration of proposed activities.
- 21 (6) Whether the activity will be held within or outside of a structure.
- 22 (7) Any other considerations deemed necessary by the director of the department of 23 health.
- 24 (d) Upon a determination that the granting of a permit will not result in a condition injurious
25 to health or safety, the permit shall be issued by noise control enforcement personnel 26 specifying place, duration, and any restrictions appropriate to the proposed site of the 27 activities.
- 28 (e) Permits must be displayed and available for review by police officers or department of 29 health officials upon request.
- 30 (f) Issued permits will be surrendered to any city police officer or city health official upon 31 request when the restrictions of the permit have been violated.
- 32 (g) Reapplication for a permit may be denied upon evidence of a complaint by a resident in 33 the locality of the permitted activity or if an applicant has in the past been required to 34 surrender a permit as described in subsection (f) of this section.
- 35 (h) This section shall not apply to any person who has been granted a variance as prescribed 36 by section 66-177.
- 37 (i) A permit may be issued for more than one occasion of activity. However, the time of such 38 activity must be indicated on the application and cannot be for more than four occasions, 39 or in excess of a six-week span.
- 40 (j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no special event permit shall be issued for 32 Sec. 110-259. - Permits required for various callings or occasions; fees.

33 (a) Every person who shall desire to use the public streets, sidewalks or public places or private 34 places of business establishments for the conduct of any of the businesses or callings 35 hereinafter set forth shall first apply to and obtain from the department of finance a permit.
36 Such permit shall in each instance state the occasion for which it is issued and the date 37 upon which it will expire and shall be in addition to any other tax or license to which 38 permittee may be liable. Except as otherwise provided, annual permits expire on December 39 31. Such permits, however, are not valid within the central business district area bounded 40 by the Mississippi River on the east, Claiborne Avenue on the west, Esplanade Avenue on 41 the north and Howard Avenue on the south, except as provided in section 110-271.

42 (b) Permits shall be paid for by the applicant at the time of issuance according to the following 43 schedule:

- 44 (1) For any transient vendor, canvasser, solicitor and merchant engaged in the sale at 45 retail of goods, wares and merchandise and who, for the purpose of carrying on 46 such business, hires, leases or occupies, either in whole or in part, any open space, 47 room or some other temporary quarter or structure for the exhibition and sale of 48 such goods, wares and merchandise and with the intention to close out or 49 discontinue such business within a period of one year from the date of the 50 commencement thereof. For the purpose of this subsection, this classification shall 51 be designated as class A as defined in section 110-256. Per location, per event:
52 $500.00.
- 53 (2) For any transient vendor, canvasser, solicitor and merchant engaged in the sale of 54 goods, wares and merchandise in conjunction with an entertainment event, athletic 55 or sporting event, where the sale of such merchandise is secondary as accessory to 56 the primary purpose for the lease, use or occupation of a room, building or other 57 structure. For the purpose of this section, this classification shall be designated as 58 class B as defined in section 110-256. Per location, per event: $500.00.
- 59 (3) For any transient vendor, canvasser, solicitor or merchant engaged in the production 60 or presentation of trade shows open to the general public, with or without admission 61 charge, where retail sales are to be conducted. This permit will cover activities of 62 their subcontractors' (lessees') retail activities. For the purpose of this section, this 63 classification shall be designated class C as defined in section 110-256. Per 64 location, per event: $500.00.
- 65 (4) For any transient vendor, canvasser, solicitor or merchant engaged in the business 66 of buying precious metals or stones and who, for the purpose of carrying on such

67 business hires, leases, or occupies, either in whole or in part, any open space, room 68 or some other temporary quarter or structure for the purpose of buying such 69 merchandise with the intent of closing out or discontinuing such business within a 70 period of one year from the date of the commencement thereof. For the purpose of 71 this section, this classification shall be designated as class D as defined in section 72 110-256. Per location, per event: $500.00.

73 (5) For any Social Aid and Pleasure Club Occasional Vendor engaging in the sale of 74 prepared or packaged food, hot or cooked food, food cooked to order, or non-food
75 artifacts at a parade event where said vendor's Social Aid and Pleasure Club has a 76 valid parade permit from the police department or a special event where said 77 vendors' Social Aid and Pleasure Club has obtained a promoter license and 78 mayoralty permit. For the purpose of this section, this classification shall be 79 designated as class E as defined in section 110-256. The provisions of section 110-80 259(c)(3) relative to the amount of the permit fee notwithstanding shall be $25.00 81 per vendor; per year.

82 (c) (1) Definition. Transient book seller means all persons engaging in the sale at retail of 83 books, in a temporary location, for a period not to exceed five days per sales event.
84 For the purposes of this definition, books must constitute more than 75 percent of 85 the retail value of the transient book seller's inventory of items for sale at a transient 86 book sale.

87 (2) a. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or the City Code, 88 effective January 1, 2005, a transient book seller (hereinafter known as seller)
89 must obtain a "transient merchant's license" in order to conduct temporary

90 business in the state. The license or a copy thereof must be in the immediate 91 possession of the seller or sales agent at all times during the transaction of 92 transient business. Prior to the issuance of a license, the seller must provide a 93 written list of the sales agents authorized to conduct business under the 94 transient merchant's license. The license shall allow the license holder to 95 conduct not more than 12 events per year.

96 b. Each agent will be issued a transient merchant's license card. The card and a 97 copy of the license must be in the immediate possession of the agent during 98 the transaction of transient business. The seller must obtain a new transient 99 merchant license card for each new or replacement sales agent.

100 (3) The transient merchant's license is valid for one year from the date of issuance, 101 provided that the permit shall expire on December 31 of the year the permit was 102 obtained. When the permit is obtained prior to July 1 of any year, the permit fee 103 shall be $500.00. When the permit is obtained on or after July 1 of any year, the 104 permit fee shall be $250.00.

105 a. The applicant for the license must complete an application form and pay a 106 $500.00 fee.

107 b. The application must include the name and address of a resident agent. The 108 resident agent must be an individual resident or a corporation, partnership, or 109 other business entity with its principle place of business in the state.

110 c. The application must be accompanied by a list of all 111 employees/agents/representatives doing business in the state. The list must 112 include the name, Social Security number, mailing address, and telephone

113 number of each employee/agent/representative doing business under the 114 transient merchant license.

115 (4) The transient merchant's license shall, in addition to any other permits, license or 116 fees required by the city, including an occupational license.

117 (d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no special event permit shall be issued for 118 an event to occur on property which does not already have an occupational license until the 119 City confirms that the property upon which the event will occur is free and clear of all 120 outstanding property taxes, final administrative judgments and municipal lien.”
