Sec. 159-5. - Regulation by the City Council. ~~Pursuant to the Home Rule Charter and state law, the council has the power to exercise regulatory authority and oversight over SWBNO and its board of directors. The council's authority includes but is not limited to the power to exercise regulatory authority and oversight over SWBNO and the board of directors. Further, the city council may at its discretion require approval of the following:~~ In accordance with its authority to regulate and oversee SWBNO and its board of directors, including the power to mandate council approval of certain SWBNO matters, the city council shall approve the following in lieu of the board:

- (a) billing policies and procedures;

- (b) rates, fees, and charges imposed by SWBNO;
- (c) debt issuance, borrowing, and financial obligations;
- (d) finance, operations, and governance policies, including review and approval of operating budgets, capital budgets, and the capital improvement plan;
- (e) professional service agreements for consulting services including those related to government relations, legal services, and lobbying; and
- (f) confirmation of the executive director and general superintendent, including any employment agreement between SWBNO and its executive director or general superintendent, together with any amendment or extension thereof.

The council may direct representatives of SWBNO or the board of directors to appear at any meeting of the council or council committee. If a council approval requirement imposed herein could impair an existing obligation of the board or conflict with applicable state law in a particular case or instance, the council may, by motion, waive the provisions of this section as necessary to avoid the impairment or conflict.
